Crawley Interfaith (CIFN) Announces Summer Events

Crawley Interfaith Network has announced a lively programme of events for the coming months. Starting with May 1st from 7 to 9pm in the Longley Room, at the Orchard, at 1/2 Gleneagles Court, Brighton Road Crawley, RH10 6AD. This important talk will be given by Iyad Daoud, Chair of the CIFN, and is entitled "The Middle East - A Muslim Perspective."

On Friday 29th May from 7 to 9, Stephen Innes Secretary of the CIFN will be holding an event entitled 'Portraying the Ineffable.' This evening includes extracts from films and a talk, and will also be held in the Longley Room - details above.

On June 13th from 1pm until 6pm, Faiths in Sussex is holding its summer conference entitled "The State, Politics and Faith". The speakers at this event have been drawn from the Christian, Hindu, Muslim and Secular communities. The conference will be held at Worth Abbey, Turners Hill, Crawley, RH10 4SB, at the Performing Arts Centre. Attendees are requested to use the Abbey Entrance and share cars whenever possible.

Horsham's Festival: Celebrating the Circle of Life: Saturday May 16th 2015 to Sunday May 24th 2015

A week of inspired events and ceremonies has been created to celebrate the many dramatic and colourful moments in the journey of life. It will be held in conjunction with the national: <http://dyingmatters.org/>. Across the country similar events will take place highlighting the importance of celebrating life's milestones... events from the familiar to the exotic. Horsham's local happening is being created by some of Sussex' most skilled and imaginative creators of ceremonies for life's important landmarks. They range from Health Walk Leaders to Mindfulness Teachers, from Earth-centred facilitators to Interfaith Ministers, from animal-lovers to nature-lovers.

HOPING FOR PALESTINE Life Under Occupation

Thursday April 30th, 2015, Refreshments at 7:00, Presentation at 7:30 at the Quaker
Meeting House, Ship Street, Brighton

Recently returned from working in Occupied Palestine as a human rights monitor, Susan Cockerton will present an evening's programme based on her experiences. Working with the ECUMENICAL ACCOMPANIMENT PROGRAMME IN PALESTINE AND ISRAEL (EAPPI) Susan monitored checkpoints, witnessed house demolitions, provided protective presence against illegal evictions, and worked with both Palestinian and Israeli peace activists.

EAPPI and QUAKER OPEN HOUSE FOR PALESTINE AND ISRAEL support an end to the occupation of Palestine and a just and lasting peace for both nations. Please join us for an informative and inspiring evening.

Jean Francis is coordinator of the Horsham event. She is an Interfaith Minister who creates ceremonies for all occasions, and is contactable on:
